Caroline Coe's Famous Recipes

One of the most interesting meetings of the season was held Friday afternoon by the Chapin Park W. C. T. U. at the home of Mrs. C. C. Beyer, 714 Harrison av. The meeting was in the nature of a mothers' meeting and was largely attended. It was opened with scriptural readings by Mrs. Beyer, Mrs. R. Richardson and Mrs. J. W. Woodward. The roll call was responded to with "gems," short talks for mothers.

Following the singing of the union song, "A Salomon's Nation in 1920," an interesting program was presented, the first number of which was a reading by Miss Mary Millhouse, entitled "The Neglected Child." Mrs. Woodward recited a poem, "All On Account of the Baby." Mrs. Ada Barnard gave a paper, "Time to Begin," and Mrs. Beyer one entitled "The Mother's Forgiveness." Mrs. S. Whitmore gave an interesting talk on "Perils of Young Women." Prayers were offered up by members of the union for international peace. Plans were made for a trip to be made to the county farm sometime in August. Following the program, the afternoon was spent socially and light refreshments were served during selections on the Victrola. Mrs. Ada Barnard will entertain the union the last Friday in August at the Y. W. C. A.

The Qui Vive club was pleasantly entertained Friday evening at the home of Miss Inez Burns, 706 Allen st. Preceding the social evening a short business session was held during which the club arranged for a picnic to be held next Saturday at Howard park and for a lawn social in the near future at the home of Miss Una Camp, 504 W. Colfax av.

The Lucky Thirteen club was pleasantly entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Frank Chelminiak, 209 Adams st. At cards favors were awarded Mrs. C. Keiser, Mrs. Frank Wooster and Mrs. R. C. DeBow. As a compliment to Miss Augusta Letz of Chicago, house guest of Miss Vernetta Krueger, 1333 W. Washington av., Miss Garneta Domke, 1001 W. Honoring the 16th birthday of her daughter Esther, Mrs. H. A. Stackman, 715 Wenger st., entertained 16 of the little girl's friends Friday afternoon. Games, music and contests were enjoyed during the afternoon and a dainty luncheon was served. Miss Esther received many beautiful gifts.

As a courtesy to Miss Nina Williams, who leaves shortly for the west to live, Mrs. Philip Goetz, W. Madison st., entertained a party of 12 at dinner Friday evening. The table was attractive with clusters of jonquils, a color scheme of yellow and white being maintained throughout. The evening was spent informally.

In honor of the approaching marriage of Miss Marie Krueger, 409 N. Hill st., the Children of Mary of St. Joseph's Catholic church entertained with a kitchen shower Friday evening at Miss Krueger's home. Contests were enjoyed, favors being awarded Miss Loretta Poudin and Miss Alfreda Winkler. Piano selections were rendered by members of the society. Refreshments were served. Miss Krueger was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. She will be married Aug. 4, at 8:30 o'clock at St. Joseph's Catholic church to Edward Mulligan.

Twelve members of the Silver Pleasure club enjoyed a picnic Friday at St. Joseph, Mich. Leaving on the 8 o'clock car, they spent the entire day at St. Joseph, visiting the House of David at Benton Harbor in the afternoon. They returned at 7 o'clock. On Aug. 11 Mrs. Elizabeth Stockwell will entertain the club at her home on Emrick st.

A party of 20 South Bend people motored to Indian lake near Dodgeville Thursday evening where they were entertained delightfully by Mrs. Mabel Holden of Notre Dame av. at her summer home. Following a fish dinner an informal evening was spent and the party returned at a late hour.

Miss Martha Jaro, 2201 Kenwood st., leaves today for Chicago, where she will visit two weeks with relatives and friends.

Clever, capable, good natured, Mrs. Bryan stands behind her husband, Wm. Jennings Bryan, and the coachman, the chauffeur, the butcher, the baker and the candlestick maker.

That is, she issues the orders in the household, pays the checks and engages and dismisses all help. But don't get the wrong impression of her. She doesn't make that the main issue of her daily life by any means.

She is so capable and efficient a housekeeper that she can do all this admirably and still devote the major part of her time to something more interesting and less mundane. For instance, Mrs. Bryan spends each summer studying some standard author. She is intellectual in her tastes and delights in travel as well as books.

Miss Kate Schafer, Forest av., has returned to her home after a two weeks' visit with relatives in Niles.

Miss Rose Schafer, Miss Clara Schafer of Forest av., Miss Clara Muesel, 1417 Elwood av., and Miss Selma Wunderlich of Cushing st., leave today for Detroit, Mich. They will later visit the Niagara falls and spend a short time in Canada. They will be gone one month.

Miss Florence Cregier left Saturday morning for Klinger lake, Mich., where she will spend a week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Wawlett of Mishawaka.

Soon after her marriage the wife of the present secretary of state studied law and was admitted to the bar in the state of Nebraska. At that time Bryan was a practicing lawyer. Her object in acquiring legal knowledge was to be able to help her husband with his work. No sooner had she finished her law course, however, than did Bryan enter politics.

Throughout the years of Bryan's life his wife has been at his side. She travels with him when he needs her; assists in handling his vast correspondence and in receiving the scores of visitors who come from all parts of the country to see him.

As the wife of the secretary of state she holds the place of first prominence among the cabinet women. During the present season many social duties devolved upon her.

Announcements

The executive committee of the St. Joseph county W. C. T. U. will meet Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A.

Kitchen Kinks

If the edges of a saucepan are well buttered the contents will not boil over.

To relieve toothache, rub baking soda round the tooth and rinse the mouth with hot water.

When putting a stopper into a bottle always give it a half turn round after it is in. This will prevent it from sticking.

It is a good plan to pepper a carpet thickly just where any heavy piece of furniture has to rest on it, as this helps to keep moths, etc., away.

Directly tea is split on a tablecloth cover the stain with common salt. Leave for a while, and when the cloth is washed all stains will have disappeared.

To improve the flavor of currants and sultanas which are to be used for cakes, place them in a bowl, pour boiling water over them, and leave to soak all night. The fruit swells to twice its former size, but should be drained from the water and dried in the oven before being added to the other ingredients.

DR. THOMSON'S EYE TALKS

TALK NO. 254

One at a Time

When you pick out a pair of ready-made glasses from stock you are trying to fit both eyes at once. That is something that the most expert eye specialists in the world cannot do. Each eye must be fitted separately and individually. There is as much difference between the two eyes in a large proportion of individuals as there is between the eyes of entirely different persons. If both eyes are fitted at once you simply pick out the pair of glasses that seem best to the good eye. The eye that sees best always determines the glass that is chosen. The other eye—the one that should have the greatest care and consideration—has to put up with what seems best for the good eye. The result is that the poorer eye gets worse from neglect. The only way to keep your eyes in the best possible condition is to have each eye fitted separately, by a man who has made a study of the optical science. He will search out every imperfection of focus, every weakened muscle, every strained nerve, and put the eye into perfect focus. Then he will do the same thing to the other eye. Last, but not least, he will see that the two eyes are placed in perfect working harmony with one another. That is my business.
